

WOMEN'S CLUB CONCERT AND ORATION WILL FEATURE SOCIETY NEXT WEEK

WHEN there has been so little social activity during the warm weeks of the early summer just past, it is with pleasant anticipation that people generally are thinking of the concert program to be given by the Women's club Tuesday night at the Chamber of Commerce. The concert will be given jointly as a compliment to Frank J. Lyons and for the benefit of the club house building fund. Mr. Lyons, who won the national collegiate oratorical contest last spring at Lake Mohonk, N. Y., representing the University of Texas where he is an undergraduate, and who earlier in the spring had won the All-Southern collegiate oratorical contest at St. Louis, is an El Paso product and his work in the oratorical contests has rebounded to the credit of El Paso.

Mr. Lyons will deliver his oration on "Peace" at the concert program Tuesday night. The musical numbers will be given by some of El Paso's most musical people, the names of Parvin White, A. F. Stevens, Mrs. Ralph J. Wilson, Mrs. D. V. Fennessy, and Mrs. E. C. Brown being on the program. It will be the first public performance of Miss Nellie May Bowen since her return from California, where she spent the winter in study. Miss Bowen, an El Paso girl, is giving unusually promise in her piano playing, and has attracted much favorable comment in Los Angeles for her work there.

Another event of interest is the wedding of Miss Edna Mae Beck, Charles H. Price, which will be solemnized Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Nagle, on Lee street. The wedding will occur at 7:30 o'clock and will be a pretty simple affair, only attended by the couple's most intimate friends. Miss Edna Mae Beck will be the bride, and Charles H. Price will be the groom. The wedding will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Nagle, on Lee street.

The week will be lively with informal affairs, for although the warm weather is inclined to make people feel lethargic, it has not decreased the popularity of little friendly gatherings of neighbors and congenial people for an afternoon or evening. Among the events of this kind for the week to come will be the meeting of the Army Bridge club at the home of Mrs. A. T. Patton, the Q. E. D. club which will meet with Miss Isabelle Springer, the Omega Phi sorority which will be entertained by Miss Grace Plank, the meeting of the Thursday Bridge club for which Miss Kate Krause will be the hostess, the meeting of the Merry Gossips' club which will be entertained by Mrs. J. R. Ellis.

El Paso is in loss soon two of its popular army people, Maj. and Mrs. C. N. Barney, who have been ordered to Oklahoma, where the major will be in charge of a recruiting office. As a farewell party for them, Lieut. and Mrs. Henry Meyers will entertain informally Monday.

Two dances are being planned, for some time ago and will probably be given the latter part of the week, at which the P. U. T. club and the I. D. Don't Know club will be the respective hosts.

There will be of course, the usual informal supper parties and motor parties, and the remnant of El Paso society which has not tied itself to the seashore or mountains will be kept pleasantly entertained during the seven days ahead.

Dinners and Luncheons.
Miss Alice Myles entertained very informally with a dainty little supper recently at her home, 1140 Madison avenue. The table was decorated with gladioli and ferns and the guests were Miss Valeria Loring, Miss Mary Redmond, Joe Worham, Vernon Lyman and Will Ruse.

Dances.
About 25 couples gathered in the ball room of the Elks' club house Friday night and enjoyed a little dance. Punch was served in the dance intermissions. Mrs. H. J. Barton entertained Friday night at her home, on Arizona street, with a very informal dancing party. The guests were her friends from Mexico. The majority of the guests were former friends of the hostess in Chihuahua and other parts of Mexico, who have come to live in El Paso. They were Mr. and Mrs. G. Keita, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Plunk, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Brown, Miss Anne Lee Rix, R. H. Burrows and A. Churchill.

Miss Edna Mae Beck, the hostess at a very charming dancing party Friday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Ains, on Mesa avenue. The handsome home, with its spacious porch and pergola, was brilliantly illuminated, and flowers were used in decorating the rooms. The guests danced both within the house and out of doors on the porch. Punch was served in the dance intermissions, and near the close of the evening, a dainty supper was enjoyed, in which a color scheme of pink and white was carried out. Miss Ains was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. F. S. Ains, and Madam M. M. McNamee, Ysabel Ito, R. L. Abolt, R. P. Mooney, P. B. Grey, Miss E. McCabe and Capt. William C. John. Among the guests were Misses Dorothy Morgan, Edith Morgan, Mary Kelly, Elizabeth Kelly, Mary Redmond, Beatrice Stiles, Alice Myles, Ann Magaffin, Madeline Safford, Nellie May Bowen, Irene Laughlin, Irene Robertson, Erna Moe, White, Marion Moe, Ploy Barnhardt, Geneva Collins, Margaret Schuster, Edith Morgan, Mary Kelly, Elizabeth Kelly, Alina, Marion Ains, Lieut. The daughters of Erin enjoyed a very delightful social meeting Friday afternoon at the Knights of Pythias hall. High dice was played and there were 10 tables of players. Mrs. Lane won the first prize, a cut glass cream and sugar set. Mrs. M. C. Hempel won the second prize, a silver pepper shaker. In silver flag and glass, and the consolation prize, a headband. Following the refreshments of ice cream and cake enjoyed, served by the social committee consisting of Mrs. H. C. Jones, Mrs. Joe Dunne, Mrs. G. B. Dwyer and Mrs. J. L. Driscoll.

An interesting program will be given Tuesday night by the Women's club of El Paso in which the principal feature will be the oration, given by Francis J. Lyons, of the University of Texas, who won the prize in the national collegiate oratorical contest this spring. The program will begin at 8:15 o'clock and will be held in the chamber of commerce building. It will be as follows:

Soprano solo, "She is Mine" by Mary Turner Salter, sung by Mrs. Ralph J. Wilson.
Piano solo, (a) Etude de Concert, by Schubert.
(b) Rien Aimee, value by Ed Schmitt, played by Miss Nellie May Bowen.
Tenor solo, "Forget-me-not" by Von Suppe, sung by Parvin White, A. F. Stevens accompanist.
Oration on Peace, Francis J. Lyons.
Violin solo, selections from Brahms, Bohme, Mrs. D. V. Fennessy, Mrs. W. R. Brown piano accompanist.

Weddings.
Miss Isabelle Given, of Elie, Scotland, and T. Long, of Lancaster, England, were married Friday morning by Judge A. S. J. Elyar in the county court house. Mr. and Mrs. Long left El Paso in the afternoon for Bixbee, Ariz., where they will reside, the groom being in business there.

Miss Vera Bachelder, and Cliff Elliott were quietly married in Tombstone, Arizona, Saturday, July 18. Mr. Elliott is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Elliott, and is first lieutenant of company K, fourth infantry, Texas National Guard. The bride graduated from the nurses' training school of Providence hospital in the class of 1913, and is well known in El Paso. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott will make their home for the present at the residence of Mr. Elliott's parents, 481 Tremont.

About El Pasoans.
Avery Wilkins, of North Carolina, has joined his wife in El Paso and will be here permanently.
Foot Comfort With Truitt Arch Lifts.
If your arches are broken down, there is only one way to know real foot comfort again, and that is by wearing Truitt Adjustable Arch Lifts. These lifts will not only give you immediate ease, but by degrees they will lift the arch back to its former position. Truitt Arch Lifts are easily adjusted by means of screws, and are the only arch lifts that can be adjusted by the wearer. We will be glad to show you Truitts and explain more about them.
